Hello UNDF_slibknot

Thanks for letting us in on your clan details!
23 members sounds quite promising already before the game is released.
I'm DualFever a mod on this forum if you need any help, we are a friendly bunch.
I hope you enjoy posting here and see you around in the future!

Hello Slibknot and Welcome to the forums! Nice to see you got so many members already in your clan , let us know maybe we could arrange a Fan match or something when the full game is out ;)

Hi Slibknot! ;) Yeah a fan matches would be nice when the game is out, we will be running our own server as well so that won't be a problem, hope to see ya again!
