Interested I am, miniature moderating experience:

1. U.A.E (GMT +04:00)
2. 18 (19 in one month)
3. Enough to check out all the posts and updates of the site
4. Bosniak
5. On avg 5-7 hours

6. I wanted to assemble it but was too lazy (Gigabyte GZ-FSCA1-ANB Black chassis, AMD 64 X2 5600+ @ 2.8Ghz, 2GB kingston Ram @ 800Mhz, 320GB Seagate internal HDD + Western Digital 500GB external HDD, Some LG Dual-layer DVD burner, Creative I-Trigue 3600, XFX Geforce 8600GT XXX Edition 256MB, MSI K9N Ultra mobo, case is easy to open and unscrew)

7. I've actually done something like sub-modding in arabic forums and some bosnian forums (i know 3 languages :))

8. I wouldn't be a complete freak-dedicator, but lets just say that a crisis will occur if i don't pay attention that it really deserves, so quite alot.

9. Firstly im a South-Eastern EU resident, I want to be part of the team to use the knowledge and experience gained from the team to somewhat utilize and dedicate to crytek when i become its CEO in a decade...

10. Nope

11. HELL YEA

12. Make that once every 2 hours for me :P

13. Actually using a banner to promote the site at IC (thx BVG), will do my best for recruits, will also make couple of vids when game comes out and upload them in my gamespot account (have a decent no. of hits in my video section).

14. Good example is my right loyal hardworking hand, my left hand is the bad example which i intend to keep it in the "Banished Dimensional-Cage" :)

Final thoughts, I want to dedicate my resource for a game and forum thats worth the while ;)
